14. (SBU) ATTACKS/SECURITY:

-- Death/Shooting: Palestinian sources and UNRWA reported that one man was killed by IDF fire near an IDF outpost south of Rafah on August 7.

-- Injury/Shooting: Palestinian sources claimed that several civilians were injured when the IDF fired warning shots at a group approximately one kilometer outside of an IDF outpost near Rafah on August 6. UNRWA reported that one Palestinian male received gunshot wounds in the leg.

-- Shootings: The IDF reported five shooting incidents in addition to the two listed above in "death" and "injuries." On August 6 IDF troops came under fire on three occasions: once south of Rafah, once southeast of Neve Dekalim, and once east of El Murage. On August 7 IDF troops were targeted near an outpost south of Gush Katif and near an outpost west of Khan Yunis. Israeli media reported one additional incident near Netzarim.

-- Shootings/Intra-Palestinian: UNRWA reported that an armed dispute between Fatah members in the Jabalia camp started on August 4 and resumed on August 5-6 when mediators ended the fighting.

-- Mortars: The IDF reported three mortar shells fired over the weekend: one targeting civilians south of Dugit on August 5, one targeting IDF troops at an outpost northwest of Morag on August 7, and one targeting IDF troops three kilometers northeast of the Nachal Oz crossing on August 7.

-- Rockets: UNRWA reported that Palestinians fired two rockets at Gush Katif on August 7. According to the Israeli media, Palestinians fired one Qassam rocket at Sderot on August 8. UNRWA said the rocket was launched from an area east of Beit Lahia.

-- Explosive Devices: The IDF reported five explosive devices found and dismantled between August 5-8. On August 5 one device was located approximately one kilometer west of Gan Or. On August 6 Palestinian police found two devices: one south of Kissufim crossing and one near an IDF outpost south of Gush Katif. On August 7 Palestinian police located two additional devices: one two kilometers south of Kissufim crossing and one near Gush Katif.

-- Kidnapping: UNRWA reported that three of its staff (a British national, a Swiss national, and a Palestinian) were kidnapped by militants in Khan Yunis on August 8. All three were released unharmed later in the day and traveled to Gaza City. UNRWA has prohibited all movement by its non-Palestinian staff south of Gaza City until further notice.

-- Arrests/Civil Unrest: UNRWA reported that PA security forces arrested two members of Faruk Qaddumi's "popular army" in Khan Yunis on August 7. As a result, dozens of armed militants forced shops to close and occupied the Red Crescent building until PA officials and mediators convinced them to leave.

-- Demonstration: UNRWA reported that 4,000 Hamas supporters in the Jabalia camp protested against the killing of Israeli Arabs in Shfaram on August 6. UNRWA noted that masked and armed Hamas members participated in the demonstration and vowed to avenge the attack.

-- Protest: UNRWA reported that on August 6 Palestinians wounded during the Intifada erected a protest tent near the PLC building in Gaza City and demanded that the PA provide them with jobs.

-- Incursion: According to UNRWA, an IDF tank, bulldozer, and patrol entered the Palestinian village of Al Moghraga, near Netzarim, on August 6 and withdrew without incident after searching two houses.

-- Arrests: Israeli radio announced that police arrested nine Israelis (seven at the Kissufim Junction and two at Kfar Maimon) for smuggling right-wing activists into Gush Katif.
